

ANSWERS

Anglo-Saxon Details	Both Cultures	Viking Details
Men and boys wore tunics and leggings	Men wore wool and linen clothing	Men wore trousers and long-sleeved tunics, leather belts, and woolen or leather caps.
Women and girls wore long dresses and head cloths	Women wore clothing made from natural materials	Women wore full length dresses and overdresses and head coverings
Whole families often lived inside a single-room house	Both built their buildings in the same way	Large rectangular houses made of wood
Days of the week are named after Viking gods.	Days of the week names	Days of the week are named after Viking gods.
King Ethelbert converted to Christianity and the rest of the country followed.	Beliefs and religion	Before Christianity, Vikings believed in gods Odin Thor, Frey, etc.