

ANSWERS

1. all men are created equal; The Declaration of Independence opens with the statement that this is the case.
2. Lincoln says that America was “dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.”
3. The Gettysburg Address reframed the Civil War as a war against slavery and for equality. It was originally supposed to be about keeping the Union together. Many slaveowners did not believe they were doing anything “unamerican” because the Constitution did not prohibit slavery, and does not talk about equality.
