

The Black Death

1. The Black Death killed between 75 and 200 million people in the Middle Ages between 1347 and 1350. TRUE FALSE
2. Many people killed by the Black Death were buried in enormous pits which served as mass graves. TRUE FALSE
3. We now know that the Black Death was spread by people getting bit by rats. TRUE FALSE
4. Cities were especially dangerous places during the Middle Ages because they attracted rats. TRUE FALSE
5. Today, the Black Death is known as the bubonic plague. TRUE FALSE
6. The Black Death does not exist anymore. TRUE FALSE
7. Historians believe it took about 150 years for Europe to rebuild and recover from the losses caused by the Black Death. TRUE FALSE
8. Many of the people killed by the Black Death were serfs, which is one of the reasons that feudalism ended. TRUE FALSE