

ANSWERS

1. Media literacy is an individual's ability to understand how the media works; to access and analyze media messages; and to use a wide range of media to accomplish objectives.
2. It encourages critical thinking and self-expression. It enables people to understand and evaluate information presented.
3. believing everything you are told without applying critical thinking
4. learn to recognize the purpose and/or bias of the media; think critically;