

ANSWERS

1. Thrust me back thither where the sun is silent.
2. sense of sight (brightness) or touch (heat)
3. sound
4. Dante is highlighting the total absence of the sun – it is so absent that not only can it not be seen and felt, it can't be heard. It adds both a depth of meaning and a poetical power to the description.