Verisimilitude: Setting

1. What is the main setting of the story?
2. Is this a real place?
3. Is this a place that human beings can and do actually go?
4. Describe the setting.
5. Does the setting have verisimilitude? Why or why not?
6. Quote a passage of the text describing the setting. Underline the words and phrases that contribute to the verisimilitude (or lack thereof) of the passage.
