

Name _____ Sardonic

Use the Sardonic

Sardonic means dry, understated or mocking speech or writing. A sardonic comment is accurate, is a little mean, and is intended to be funny, although it is delivered with a straight face. The word sardonic can also be used to describe a person. Think about the story you are writing. Is there a character or a situation where sardonicism might be appropriate?

My story is about _____

A character in my story who might make a sardonic comment is

The scene where I am thinking of including a sardonic comment is

Sardonicism would be appropriate for this character or situation because
