Name _____ Soliloquy

Write a Soliloquy

A soliloquy is a dramatic device in which an actor speaks their thoughts and reveals their emotions out loud. A soliloquy differs from a conversation because there is only one person talking. If there are other people present, then the person delivering the soliloquy is ignoring them or speaking as if they are not there. Someone giving a soliloquy is only talking to themself.

DIRECTIONS: Think about a story that you know well. Imagine you are writing the script to bring that story to the stage. Choose a character and something important about their motivation from that story and write a short soliloquy for that character to deliver in your play.
