

Name _____

Protagonist

The Protagonist

The protagonist is the main character or group of characters in a story. Supporting characters interact with the main character in ways that moves the plot, highlights the theme, or contributes to the protagonist's character development.

Who is the protagonist of the story? _____

How do you know? _____

Who are the supporting characters? _____

Write down something the protagonist says that shows they are the protagonist.

Draw the protagonist.

