

ANSWERS

1. Zeugma is when you use a word in a sentence one time to simultaneously convey two different meanings.
2. Often one meaning is literal while the other is figurative, but sometimes two completely different meanings of the word are employed.
3. The word execute is used twice: execute laws and execute citizens. The second use is unexpected and therefore shocking.
4. sentences will vary