

ANSWERS

Pathos is an appeal to emotions. It focuses primarily on how the audience is receiving a message.

Ethos is an appeal to character or trustworthiness. It focuses primarily on the credibility of the author/speaker.

Logos is an appeal to logic. It focuses primarily on how logically sound the content of an argument is.