

Intertextuality

Use words from the box to complete the paragraph.

| | | | |
|------------|-----------|----------------|-----------|
| deliberate | reasoning | interconnected | |
| content | text | latent | aesthetic |

1. Intertextuality refers to the fact that all texts are _____.
2. Every text that is created is affected by the _____, _____, and _____ choices of all the texts that preceded it.
3. _____, in the broadest sense of the word, includes novels, philosophy, journalism, song lyrics, and all works of art in general.
4. _____ Intertextuality is when the author consciously chooses to reference or draw upon another work, creating a relationship between the new work and the old one.
5. _____ Intertextuality is when relationships appear between a new text and an older one without the conscious intention of the newer work's creator.