

ANSWERS

1.

Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds.

~ Postal Service Motto

2.

"In years gone by, there were in every community men and women who spoke the language of duty and morality and loyalty and obligation." ~ William F. Buckley 3.

"Oh, my piglets, we are the origins of war – not history's forces, nor the times, nor justice, nor the lack of it, nor causes, nor religions, nor ideas, nor kinds of government – not any other thing. We are the killers." ~ Katherine Hepburn, The Lion in Winter