

Indirect Objects

TRUE OR FALSE

1. The direct object is a noun or a pronoun that follows an action verb.

2. The indirect object answers the question, "Whom?" or "What?" after the action verb.

3. The indirect object receives the direct object.

4. The indirect object can only be a noun.

5. The indirect object can only be a pronoun.

6. The indirect object is always a single word.

7. The indirect object can be a noun, a pronoun, or a phrase.

8. The indirect object can be an object pronoun but not a reflexive pronoun.

9. Indirect objects can only be placed directly after the verb and before the direct object.
