

Indirect Objects

The direct object is a noun or a pronoun that follows an action verb. It answers the question, "Whom?" or "What?" after the action verb. The indirect object is the word or phrase that receives the direct object. Answer the questions to find the indirect object in each sentence.

1. Ed passed Franklin the cake.

What is the direct object? _____

Who or what is receiving the direct object? _____

2. Nobody brought Joseph lunch.

What is the direct object? _____

Who or what is receiving the direct object? _____

3. Robert offered Kaylee some eggs.

What is the direct object? _____

Who or what is receiving the direct object? _____

4. She paid Hank ten dollars.

What is the direct object? _____

Who or what is receiving the direct object? _____

5. The girls sang their parents a song.

What is the direct object? _____

Who or what is receiving the direct object? _____