

ANSWERS

Plays are written to be performed in front of an audience.

Plays are structured in acts and scenes and are made up mostly of dialogue.

Plays have characters and settings.

Plays have a plot or theme.

A written text that is a play will have the character's names before each line of dialogue. It will include stage directions. It will be divided into acts, not chapters or stanzas.