

ANSWERS

structured in acts and scenes	plays structured with line breaks and stanzas	poems always has a plot or theme	plays made up mostly of dialogue	plays always has characters and settings	plays straightforward without rhyme or rhythm	prose uses grammar/punctuation in common ways	prose written to be performed for an audience	plays expresses feelings or ideas	poems focuses on the words and rhythm	poems capital letter at the beginning of every line	poems structured in sentences and paragraphs	prose uses grammar /punctuation in unusual ways	poems has a rhythmic feel	poems uses figurative language and imagery	poems