

Name _____

The Shofar and Its Meaning

(Note: Accept reasonable paraphrased responses.)

1. It was used to announce important events and signal people in battle.
2. They are meant to stir the soul and make people reflect on how to improve.
3. Because Shabbat has special rules and its holiness takes priority.
4. It encourages self-reflection and spiritual awakening, which helps people start repentance.
5. Answers will vary; examples include: "It reminds people to reflect, improve, and return to their best selves."