

ANSWERS

scornful	expressing extreme contempt ebullience	eager enjoyment or approval indignant	angered at something unjust or wrong recrimination	mutual accusations tumult	a state of commotion and noise and confusion tirade	a speech of violent denunciation oppressive	weighing heavily on the senses or spirit inscrutable	difficult or impossible to understand vicissitude	a variation in circumstances or fortune furtive	secret and sly tacit	implied by or inferred from actions or statements flaunt	display proudly blatant	with no attempt to conceal preposterous	inviting ridicule incredulous	not disposed or willing to believe; unbelieving