

ANSWERS

1. a place called The Community, which doesn't have a specific name
2. It is an isolated place that is out of touch with the rest of the surrounding world. In the beginning of the book we learn that a plane flew over the community, which is not allowed, and as punishment, the pilot was "released."
3. Life is very structured. There are a lot of rules, customs, and rituals to follow. However, people seem to be safe, happy, and well cared for.
4. family life is also very structured and has its own rituals.