

ANSWERS

1. Daisy is driving Gatsby's car. Myrtle thinks it is Tom's car and runs out into the street, where she gets killed. Gatsby intends to take the blame. Myrtle's husband George comes to his house and kills him and then kills himself.
2. Narrator Nick Carraway decides to leave Long Island high society and return to the Midwest
3. The ending is a subtle commentary on the American dream, wealth and morality.