

Name _____

Identification Practice

Instructions: Read each passage carefully. Then decide whether the speaker is appealing to Ethos (credibility/trust), Pathos (emotions/feelings), or Logos (logic/reasoning). Write your answer in the blank provided. Be prepared to explain why you chose that appeal.

Part A - Short Statements

1. "As a doctor with 20 years of experience treating heart disease, I strongly recommend regular exercise and a balanced diet." → _____
2. "Every minute, the equivalent of a garbage truck full of plastic enters our oceans-if we don't act now, marine life will suffer irreversible harm." → _____
3. "If you donate today, you won't just be giving money-you'll be giving a child hope, comfort, and the chance to dream." → _____
4. "I've studied this company's financial reports for the past five years, and the data clearly shows that their revenue has increased steadily." → _____
5. "My grandfather fought in World War II, and he always told me that freedom must never be taken for granted. That's why voting is so important." → _____

Part B - Mini-Passages

6. "Imagine walking into a shelter and seeing dozens of frightened dogs and cats waiting for someone to take them home. Their eyes follow you, begging for kindness. By adopting, you can give them the love they deserve." → _____
7. "According to a recent study from the University of Michigan, students who sleep at least 8 hours perform 20% better on exams compared to those who sleep less." → _____
8. "You can trust this safety equipment-it's been approved by the National Institute of Safety and tested under extreme conditions." → _____
9. "Picture a world where no child goes hungry. Together, through small donations, we can make this vision a reality." → _____
10. "Research conducted across 15 countries demonstrates that renewable energy not only reduces pollution but also creates more long-term jobs than fossil fuels." → _____