

Name _____

Emotion Detective Worksheet

Instructions: Look carefully at each picture. Imagine you are an emotional detective trying to figure out what the child might be feeling and why. Use clues from the picture such as facial expressions, body posture, the environment, and what is happening in the scene. Write your ideas in the spaces provided.

1. What do you think might have happened right before this moment that led to the child playing with the dog?

Write your idea:

2. Look closely at the child's face, posture, and the way they are interacting with the dog. What emotion do you think the child might be feeling? Circle or write:

Happy Excited Loved Calm Proud Other: _____

3. What clues in the picture helped you figure out this emotion? Think about facial expressions, body movement, and the way the dog and child are interacting. Write the clues you noticed:

4. If you were the child in this moment, what thoughts might pop into your mind while playing with your dog? Write possible thoughts:

5. What do you think might have happened earlier in the day that made the child feel this way? Write what might have happened:

6. Based on the child's facial expression and posture, what emotion do you think the child might be feeling? Circle or write the emotion:

Sad Lonely Worried Disappointed Hurt Other: _____