

ANSWERS

|              |                                                                                                  |
|--------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| policy       | a plan of action adopted by an individual or social group                                        |
| naval        | connected with an organization of military vessels                                               |
| spy          | an agent hired by someone to obtain information about its enemies or competitors                 |
| loan         | money provided to someone which is intended to be repaid, usually with interest.                 |
| Constitution | the governing document of the United States of America, ratified by the original thirteen states |
| perceived    | detected by instinct or inference                                                                |
| foreign      | not deriving from the essential nature of something                                              |
| American     | of or relating to the United States of America or its people or language or culture              |
| limited      | subject to restrictions or constraints                                                           |
| reject       | refuse to accept or acknowledge                                                                  |
| striking     | having a quality that thrusts itself into attention                                              |