

Name _____

Proofreading Pulse Check

Directions - Each sentence contains one misspelled term from the word list. Circle the error, then write the correct spelling on the line.

1. The mediator attempted to placait both sides before the disagreement escalated. _____
2. Her explanation was so lucide that even the most complex idea became understandable. _____
3. The mayor faced public criticism after making a presumtuuous announcement without consulting the council. _____
4. The abandoned theater had become severely dilapidaited after decades of neglect. _____
5. The witness gave an equivicle response that could be interpreted in several ways. _____
6. The journalist worked to substantiate the allegation with documents and eyewitness accounts. _____
7. His boisterus behavior disrupted the otherwise formal ceremony. _____
8. The committee considered whether the proposed plan was financially feasible. _____
9. The speaker used a clever euphamism to avoid mentioning the unpleasant reality directly. _____
10. The attorney argued that the defendant was not culpible for the accident. _____
11. The storm caused a sudden conflagrasion that destroyed several nearby buildings. _____
12. The professor's lecture was highly didactick, emphasizing a clear moral lesson. _____
13. The public became increasingly incredulus as the explanation grew more improbable. _____
14. The company offered financial remunerasion for the additional work. _____
15. The author's unusual style was shaped by a personal idiosyncracy. _____
16. The committee chose to admonnish the official for repeatedly ignoring the rules. _____
17. The evidence was too negligeable to influence the final decision. _____
18. The critic described the film as visually impressive but emotionally superfluos. _____
19. The governor agreed to relinquish control after losing public support. _____
20. Her vehemant objection made it clear that she strongly opposed the proposal. _____