

Name _____

Deadline at the Editorial Command Center

Assignment - Each report contains the number of spelling errors shown. Circle every misspelled term, record the correct spellings, and answer the reading question.

Report 1: The Community Mediation Project (5 spelling errors)

City leaders arranged an arbitrashion session after months of public animosity divided the neighborhood. A respected mediator encouraged both groups to speak with candour and consider a peaceful resolution. Her calm disposition helped restore equanimity to the discussion.

Corrections: _____

What helped make the discussion more productive?

- A. The meeting was canceled. B. A mediator encouraged honesty and calm.
C. The groups refused to compromise. D. City leaders avoided the disagreement.

Report 2: The Forgotten Theater (6 spelling errors)

Students entered a dilapidated theater that had remained in abeyance for decades. Inside, they discovered an antediluvian lighting system, a faded costume collection, and an apocryphal story about a vanished performer. Their teacher asked them to ascertain which details were factual and which were products of historical fabrication.

Corrections: _____

What were the students expected to determine?

- A. Whether the building should be demolished
B. Which details were supported by evidence
C. How to perform the unfinished play
D. Who owned the costume collection

