

Name _____

Proofreading Patrol

Directions - Each passage contains a set number of spelling mistakes. Circle every misspelled word, rewrite each one correctly, and answer the question that follows.

Passage 1: The School Campaign - (5 spelling errors)

The student council began a new campain to improve school attendance. Their first goal was to make every classroom more accesible. They also created a short pamflet explaining the plan. The principal praised their inititive and said the project could become a major accomplishment.

Corrections

--	--	--	--	--

What was the main goal of the campaign?

- A. To shorten the school day B. To improve attendance and accessibility
C. To cancel student council meetings D. To create a new sports team

Passage 2: The Museum Discovery - (7 spelling errors)

During a class trip, students examined an artifical model of an ancient civilization. A guide shared a fascinating anacdote about the people who once lived there. The exhibit included a detailed panarama, a miniature village, and an unusual piece of graffitti. One student noticed a strange coincidense between the model and a map in the school encyclopidia. The guide called the discovery exceptionel.

Corrections:

What helped the student notice the connection?

- A. A school encyclopedia B. A weather forecast
C. A laboratory experiment D. A rehearsal schedule