

Name _____

Chat Glitch Challenge

Directions - Each message contains one misspelled word. Circle it, then write the correct spelling on the line.

Maya: Did you finish the analis for our science project? _____

Ethan: Almost. I still need to explain my hypothosis. _____

Lena: Don't forget to include the results from the laboritory test. _____

Noah: I added a short anacdote to make the presentation more interesting. _____

Maya: Good idea! We should also check the punctuasion before we submit it. _____

Ethan: The teacher said our explanation must be clear and confindential. _____

Lena: I think you mean detailed, not confidential! Either way, the final copy should look proffesional. _____

Noah: I printed a small pamflet for everyone in the class. _____

Maya: Great! Is the information accesible to all students? _____

Ethan: Yes, and I used a simple chart to show the percentige of each result. _____

Lena: Our group showed a lot of perseverence during this project. _____

Noah: Especially when the computer caused an unexpected emergancy! _____

Maya: At least we found a quick and feasable solution. _____

Ethan: Now we just need to practice before the final rehearsel. _____

Lena: I hope the audience finds our topic facinating. _____

Noah: They will. Our presentation is going to be briliant! _____