

Name _____

The Editor's Emergency Desk Answer Key

Passage 1: The Science Expo (5 spelling errors)

Our class prepared an acadamick display about genetics and human anatomy. One group built a model of a cell using bright materials and labeled each molecue carefully. Another group explained how a bacterum can spread during an epidemic. The judges praised the students' collaberation and called the presentation highly authentick.

Passage 1: academic, molecule, bacterium, collaboration, authentic

Question: B

Passage 2: The Debate Team (6 spelling errors)

The debate team discussed a controvershal amendment during practice. Each student had to present a clear argument and remain articulite under pressure. One speaker made an exageration, while another pointed out a serious contradicsion. After a long discussion, the group reached a consencus and selected its strongest representitive.

Passage 2: controversial, articulate, exaggeration, contradiction, consensus, representative

Question: A