

Name _____

The Final Copy Deadline

Editorial Instructions - Each report contains a stated number of spelling errors. Circle every misspelled term, write the correct forms beneath the passage, and answer the comprehension question.

Report 1: Mapping a Changing City (5 spelling errors)

A research team conducted a demografik study of several urban neighborhoods. Using quantatative data, the researchers examined population growth, housing costs, and public transportation. Their analitical report showed that economic changes had a cumulitive effect on long-term residents. The team emphasized that every conclusion must be supported by emperical evidence.

Corrections: _____

What standard did the researchers use when forming conclusions?

- A. Personal opinion B. Empirical evidence
C. Historical fiction D. Anonymous commentary

Report 2: The Laboratory Alert (8 spelling errors)

Scientists began a bacteriological investigation after an unfamiliar organizm appeared in several water samples. A rapid diagnostick test revealed that the organism produced an unusual enzyme that could alter cellular metabalism. Researchers feared its sudden prolifiration might increase animal mortality in the surrounding ecosystem. They developed a compound designed to inhbit its growth before the contamination spread.

Corrections: _____

Why did the researchers develop a new compound?

- A. To accelerate the organism's growth
B. To change the water's color
C. To inhibit the organism before it spread
D. To increase cellular metabolism