Grammar Shift

Directions: Listen as your teacher reads each sentence aloud. Follow the change direction, then rewrite the complete sentence correctly. Pay close attention to spelling, grammar, capitalization, and punctuation.

1. Change the sentence to the past tense.

The students organize their research notes before the presentation.

2. Change the sentence to the future tense.

Our science class examines the water samples in the laboratory.

3. Change the sentence from active voice to passive voice.

The volunteers collected several boxes of food for the shelter.

4. Combine the sentences using the word “although.”

The trail was steep and rocky. The hikers continued toward the summit.

5. Change the statement into a question.

The school library will remain open after the meeting.

6. Replace the repeated noun with an appropriate pronoun.

Daniel finished the model, and Daniel placed it on the display table.

7. Add the adverb “carefully” in the best place.

The technician examined the damaged computer before replacing the battery.
