

Name _____

Grade 11 Spelling Review Test

Directions - Complete each problem carefully. Spell every written response correctly.

1. The critic argued that the novel could support several reasonable explanations. Its meaning remained open to multiple _____.
2. The researchers noticed an unexpected difference between the original measurements and the newly collected data. They investigated the _____.
3. The professor's conclusion followed logically from the evidence and contained no contradictions. Her reasoning was _____.
4. The article attempted to _____ that the official had acted dishonestly without stating the accusation directly.
A. infer B. imply C. implie D. inferre
5. From the evidence in the article, readers could reasonably _____ that the policy had been ineffective.
A. imply B. infer C. inferr D. implie
6. The speaker tried to _____ the audience's concerns by explaining the new safety procedures.
A. allay B. alley C. ally D. alay
7. The word (superscede) is misspelled. Which correction is needed?
A. Replace -scede with -cede.
B. Double the first consonant.
C. Remove the second e.
D. Change the prefix to super-.
Correct spelling: _____
8. The word (questionnaire) is misspelled. Which correction is needed?
A. Double the n before the suffix.
B. Remove the first i.
C. Change the ending to -ery.
D. Double the final vowel.
Correct spelling: _____
9. The attorney attempted to _____ information from the reluctant witness.
A. elicit B. illicit C. elicet D. illisit
10. The organization prohibited the _____ sale of confidential information.
A. elicit B. illicit C. illisit D. elicitt

